As a Recreation Coordinator with the City of Ocala, serving on the Recreation Commission offers a unique opportunity to directly contribute to the enhancement and development of recreational programs and facilities within our community. By being part of the commission, I can provide valuable insights, expertise, and firsthand knowledge of the needs and preferences of our residents, ensuring that recreational offerings align closely with the interests and desires of the community. Additionally, participating in the commission allows me to collaborate with other stakeholders, advocate for resources, and shape policies that promote inclusivity, accessibility, and the overall well-being of our residents through recreational opportunities. Ultimately, serving on the Recreation Commission enables me to play a pivotal role in fostering a vibrant and healthy community where individuals of all ages can thrive and enjoy meaningful leisure experiences.

Brief Resume of Education and Experience:

Dedicated Recreation Leader with a proven track record of developing, implementing, and managing highly successful recreation programs for the City of Ocala. A passionate advocate for community engagement and wellness, I bring a unique blend of creativity, organization, and leadership to create memorable recreational experiences for residents of all ages.
