STAFF RECOMMENDATION (Motion Ready):

Flamingo donation acceptance and relocation

BACKGROUND:

P. Ruber's Story (Flamingo) was a participant in the 7th Biennial Ocala Outdoor Sculpture Competition. The artist Michael O'Khaen offered the sculpture as a donation, valued at $9,500, on October 28, 2025. Included was a maintenance recommendation with specified materials. Ocala Municipal Arts Commission made the recommendation to accept on December 3, 2025. City Council heard and made final approval on January 6, 2026. An official donation acceptance letter was provided to O'Khaen on January 7, 2026. P. Ruber's Story (Flamingo) was relocated to its permanent location on Watula Ave in Tuscawilla Park.

Dear Michael O-Khaen,

Thank you for supporting the City of Ocala's Public Art Program. On January 6, 2026, Ocala City Council formally accepted the donation of "P. Ruber's Story (Flamingo)" into the permanent collection. "Flamingo" is an exceptional work that assists in raising awareness about wildlife preservation both locally and statewide. Permanently exhibiting this sculpture at Tuscarilla Park will provide a unique opportunity for community residents and guests to experience creativity and reflection. This sculpture valued at $9,500 will help Ocala Cultural Arts in achieving our mission to provide an outlet for lifelong learning, enliven public spaces, and instill community pride as well as the City's overall vision for the community: "Ocala is a great place to work, play, and prosper."

This sculpture donation is tax-deductible. For your tax records, the City of Ocala's Federal Tax ID number is 59-6000392.

Best regards,

Emily Parkman

STAFF RECOMMENDATION (Motion Ready):

East Ocala CRA Mural Completion

BACKGROUND:

On January 20, 2025, artist Justin Alsedek and business owner Neighborhood Storage presented a mural proposal along the façade of the business at NSC 8th Ave through the new East Ocala Community Redevelopment Agency (CRA) mural grant program. On February 5, 2025, staff presented the proposal to the Ocala Municipal Arts Commission with defined responsibilities and approved for recommendation. On July 15, 2025, the East Ocala CRA advisory committee approved the project with OMACs recommendation. This project was the first test pilot project for the East Ocala CRA. The dimensions of the mural are one hundred feet by ten feet on corrugated metal. Justin started in December 2025 and completed the project in January 2026. Staff took photographs of the mural for presentation to OMAC.
