

Super WHY!: Super Readers, Power Up!

Explore Super WHY!: Super Readers, Power Up! | The Magic House

About the Exhibit

Super Readers to the rescue! Open the pages of your favorite storybook and join the Super Readers in Super WHY!: Super Readers, Power Up!, our newest exhibit based on the PBS KIDS® TV series Super WHY! Whimsical environments and hands-on interactives bring Storybook Village and your favorite nursery rhymes to life. Children will practice early literacy and problem-solving skills when they “Look in a book!”

Super WHY!: Super Readers, Power Up! is an immersive exhibit developed and fabricated by The Magic House, St. Louis Children’s Museum in collaboration with PBS KIDS® and 9 Story Media Group. Thanks to Nine PBS for their support as our local media sponsor.

Exhibit Areas

Super WHY!: Super Readers, Power Up! features a variety of immersive environments including:

Book Club: Kids can become a superhero as they don a cape and discover the special powers of Super Why, Wonder Red, Princess Presto, Alpha Pig and Woofster, a super dog, before jumping into a “Why Flyer” to explore Storybrook Village.

Super Why’s House: Slide down Jack’s Beanstalk slide, bake gingerbread men cookies and change the story by changing a word.

Princess Presto’s Castle: Search for gems, roll eggs down a ramp, put Humpty Dumpty together (again) and take a ride in Cinderella’s carriage.

Alphabet Path: Build with letters and blocks then play a life-size game and hop along the Alphabet Path to discover secret letters with Alpha Pig.

Wonder Red’s House: Race Wonder Red to collect rhyming words in her basket and meet the three bears.

Teapot Café: Pour tea and serve alphabet cookies and treats to your friends.

Storybrook Park: Take the Three Billy Goats Gruff across the bridge and read classic stories.
