Why do you think you are qualified to serve on this board/commission?

I believe my background with multiple boards combined with my hands-on experience in multiple community development projects, uniquely positions me to contribute effectively to the Planning & Zoning Commission. Having worked on projects that balance development with sustainability, I have an understanding of the intricacies of land use and zoning within a community context. My deep connection to the Ocala community further enriches my perspective, ensuring that I can help guide growth in a way that aligns with our city's comprehensive plan and values. I'm committed to leveraging my skills and knowledge to foster a balanced, thoughtful approach to Ocala's development and zoning challenges.
