BACKGROUND:

The Ocala Police Department has an ongoing need for vehicle accessories to outfit new police vehicles.

After a competitive solicitation process, Bradford County, Florida, awarded Contract No. BCSO2019-01 (the "Bradford County Agreement") for the provision of certain vehicle accessories and non-vehicle accessories to Dana Safety Supply, Inc. ("Dana Supply") for a term of five years, commencing July 15, 2019, and ending July 14, 2024. The Bradford County Agreement offered one optional five-year renewal period upon mutual agreement of the parties.

On November 29, 2021, OPD was granted a procurement exception to piggyback the Bradford County

Agreement for the ongoing purchase of vehicle accessories and non-vehicle accessories. The original estimated aggregate expenditure amount established for the City's piggyback agreement, Contract No. 211083, was $39,799.

FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS:

Since contract inception, OPD expenditures under Contract No. 211083 have totaled $249,062, $96,670 of which was approved by Council on November 1, 2022, for the purchase of replacement pistols. It has been determined that the Ocala Police Department will expend an additional $25,000 for required new vehicle accessories under the Bradford contract in the current fiscal year.

FISCAL IMPACT:

Funding for this purchase is available in account #001-018-822-521-52-46010.
