Ocala Civic Theatre (OCT) has provided a program for excellence in theatre called "The Academy" since 1990. OCT provides special programs for youth ages 9 – 17 so every child can experience a supportive and enriching environment where they can develop skills, explore their creativity, and build confidence, regardless of their socioeconomic background. These programs play a crucial role in leveling the playing field and providing opportunities for all young people to thrive. The Academy consists of three terms of classes with approximately 80 youth participating each term. Topics include improv, stage combat, musical theatre, acting for the camera, best practices, audition techniques and more.

The Academy will be expanding this program to the west side of Ocala and calling this new program "The Academy West." We will be entering into a partnership with the Mary Sue Rich Community Center at Reed Place. After discussing our vision for this expansion to include more of our community, the center has expressed their willingness and excitement for us to partner with them and use their space. This opportunity will allow OCT to provide arts and culture to a population of Marion County that hasn't historically gained equal access and representation to these opportunities. We would like for this new expansion to bring arts to underserved populations and bring those underserved populations to the theatre, which is one of the primary functions of a Community Theatre.

While we have the space and willingness to provide these services, we will require funding to pay instructors for their time and travel to an offsite location, and production costs for the performances. We are requesting $2,500 to help offset some of the costs for the launch of this new program. This funding will allow OCT to expand its reach to underserved youth of Marion County, thereby increasing the number of youths participating in a series of workshops offered through Ocala Civic Theatre.

Please see the attached breakdown of the costs associated with this project for which we are requesting assistance.

Ocala Civic Theatre is an Equal Employment Opportunity organization. All qualified candidates will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, religion, color, sex, sexual orientation, gender, gender identity, age, national origin, ancestry, citizenship, protected veteran or disability status or any factor prohibited by law.
